DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Claims 1-3 in the reply filed on 4/25/2005 is acknowledged.

Claims 4-9 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 4/25/2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 4, "the side of the frame" lacks antecedent basis. On line 5, "the annular groove" lacks antecedent basis.

The aforementioned problems render the claims vague and indefinite.

Clarification and/or correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Numa et al (U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0124689 A1).

Numa et al teach a backrest including a frame 3 including a margin and two rims extending on a side of the margin and a gap defined between the rims; a web 2 spread on the side of the frame; and a 18 ring put on the web and fit in the annular groove so that the web is tightly spread on the frame, including a cushion 40 arranged between the margin and the web so that the web is more tightly spread on the frame, including a cover 3 installed around the frame (See Figures 15-18 and the specification).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kindig et al, Chow, Kawashima, Cvek, Cramb, III et al, Su, Wilkerson et al, Stumpf et al, and Coffield teach structures similar to the present invention.
